The Counter-Reformation had two objectives one to reform the church from within and second to stop the spread of Protestantism. The Counter-Reformation culminated in the Council of Trent. We will examine this two-green approach of the Roman Catholic Church, as well as the people who worked to implement the work of the Council of Trent. We'll use a Nearpod presentation to cover the material, so be sure to ask me for the code. But remember to complete the study guide doesn't just mean filling in definitions using a glossary, but having a complete understanding of the topic. Unit 1 Renaissance and Reform Study Guide DOES NOT have to complete a study guide. It is offered for your benefit. If you complete a study guide it will be worth 75 points. If you do not complete a study guide, you will not be penalized. Essay: There will be a response test constructed of at least 3-5 paragraphs as part of the test. DO NOT ignore it because it can cost you at least one letter rating. But I'm let you know your trial decisions in advance. They are: 1.Causes of the Renaissance 2.Differences between the Italian Renaissance and the Northern Renaissance 3.Characteristics of the Renaissance 4.Causes & Effects of the Reformation. Be sure to write at least 3-5 paragraphs on the chosen topic. The best rating will be a complete answer. Don't write a little on each topic, but rather a complete answer on a topic. If necessary, you can use the graphic organizer below to help structure and organize your essay. Organizing your Trent Built Response Council The last big topic we will cover before our unitary test is the Roman Catholic Counter-Reformation. The Counter-Reformation had two objectives one to reform the church from within and second to stop the spread of Protestantism. The Counter-Reformation culminated in the Council of Trent.
